Administrative Information

Acquisition Information

Collection donated by Alma Mater Recording Company founder and owner Martin Stein in 2001.

Processing Information

The Alma Mater Recording Co. audio recordings were processed and described at a basic level in 2010. A more detailed processing of the audio recordings, along with an updated finding aid, was completed by Cecilia Peterson in July 2015.

Preferred Citation

Alma Mater Recording Company audio recordings, Ralph Rinzler Folklife Archives and Collections, Smithsonian Institution.

Restrictions

Access to the Ralph Rinzler Folklife Archives and Collections is by appointment only. Visit our website for more information on scheduling a visit or making a digitization request. Researchers interested in accessing born-digital records or audiovisual recordings in this collection must use access copies.

Conditions Governing Use

Permission to publish materials from the collection must be requested from the Ralph Rinzler Folklife Archives and Collections. Please visit our website to learn more about submitting a request. The Ralph Rinzler Folklife Archives and Collections make no guarantees concerning copyright or other intellectual property restrictions. Other usage conditions may apply; please see the Smithsonian's Terms of Use for more information.

Scope and Contents

This collection contains vinyl discs, cassette tapes, open reel tapes, lacquer discs, and papers produced by the Alma Mater Recording Co. between 1959-1986. The vinyl discs and cassettes represent the commercial recordings produced by the company, while the open reel tapes and lacquer disc represent the associated master recordings. Papers include correspondence with various camps, promotional material, and cover designs.
