Date: circa 1928-2014
1849
1931 - 1983
(bulk 1952-2014)

Extent: 35.6 Linear feet

Creator: Ashton, Dore

Language: English

Most of the collection is in English; some correspondence and printed materials are in French, Spanish, Italian, German, Norwegian, and possibly Latvian.

Summary: The papers of Dore Ashton measure 35.6 linear feet and date from circa 1928-2014, with one letter in the Joseph Cornell subject file dating from 1849. The records document Dore Ashton's career as an art critic, historian and educator, with particular depth for the period of 1952 through 1990. The collection contains a small amount of biographical material, as well as correspondence, writings, subject files, printed materials, artwork, and reference photographs of artworks. An addition to the Dore Ashton papers includes biographical material, correspondence, writings, writing project and subject files, teaching files, printed material, artwork and sketchbooks, and photographic material.

Administrative Information

Acquisition Information

The Dore Ashton papers were donated to the Archives of American Art by Dore Ashton May 27, 1982, May 8, 1997, June 2, 2011, and March, 25, 2016.

Related Materials

Among the holdings of the Archives is an oral history interview with Dore Ashton conducted November 21, 2010 by George W. Sampson, for the Archives of American Art's Elizabeth Murray Oral History of Women in the Visual Arts Project.

Dore Ashton papers are also located at Emory University Manuscript, Archives, and Rare Book Library.

Available Formats

Portions of the collection are available on 35 mm microfilm reels 5143-5152 at the Archives of American Art offices and through interlibrary loan. Researchers should note that the arrangement of the material described in the container inventory does not reflect the arrangement of the collection on microfilm.

Processing Information

The collection was partially processed by Jean Fitzgerald in 1997. The collection was minimally processed and a finding aid created by Valerie Vanden Bossche in 2013 with funding provided by the Smithsonian Institution Collections Care and Preservation Fund. The 2016 addition was processed to a minimal level and the finding aid updated by Hilary Price in 2017.

Biographical / Historical

Dore Ashton (1928-) is an art critic, author, and educator living in New York City. She wrote, contributed, and edited more than 30 books. Ashton was born in Newark New Jersey in 1928 and received an MA from Harvard University in 1950. Her many books and articles focus on late 19th and 20th century art and artists. Ashton was associate editor at Art Digest from 1952-1954, and critic for Arts and Architecture at the New York Times, 1955-1960. Starting in 1962 she held several lecturing posts at various institutions including the School of Visual Arts, Cooper Union, and the New School for Social Research. She was awarded a Guggenheim fellowship in 1964 and a National Endowment for the Humanities grant in 1980. Among Ashton's books are Abstract Art Before Columbus, 1956; Poets and the Past, 1959; A Joseph Cornell Album, 1974; Yes, But...A Critical Study of Philip Guston, 1976; About Rothko, 1983; The New York School: a Cultural Reckoning, 1973; Noguchi East and West, 1992; and David Rankin: The New York Years, 2013. Dore Ashton was the first critic to develop a comprehensive and eye-witness account of the history of the Abstract Expressions.

Ashton married artist Adja Yunkers (1900-1983) in 1953, and they had two daughters Alexandra (known as Sasha) and Marina. In 1985 she married writer Matti Megged (1923-2003).

Scope and Contents

The papers of Dore Ashton measure 35.6 linear feet and date from circa 1928-2014, with one letter in the Joseph Cornell subject file dating from 1849. The records document Dore Ashton's career as an art critic, historian and educator, with particular depth for the period of 1952 through 1990. The collection contains a small amount of biographical material, as well as correspondence, writings, subject files, printed materials, artwork, and reference photographs of artworks. An addition to the Dore Ashton papers includes biographical material, correspondence, writings, writing project and subject files, teaching files, printed material, artwork and sketchbooks, and photographic material.

The bulk of the collection consists of correspondence with many artists, writers and others, including Pat Adams, James Adley, Rudolf Arnheim, Jake Berthot, Dennis Congdon, George Herbert, Remo Guidieri, Barbara Howes, Fred Licht, Joan Punyet Miro, Carl Fredrik Reuterswärd, and Hedda Sterne, among others. Smaller amounts of letters are from Joseph Albers, Edward Albee, Richard Avedon, Richard Diebenkorn, David Driskell, Alberto Giacometti, Philip Guston, Lillian Hellman, Alger Hiss, Bernard Malamud, Joan Miro, Robert Motherwell, Lewis Mumford, Claes Oldenburg, and Vassilis Vassilikos.

Writings consist of transcripts of miscellaneous articles or those written for various publications. Research files include reference or research materials for books, exhibitions, individuals and various topics. Individuals and topics include Jacopo Luis Borges, Allan Kaprow, Richard Lindner, Seong Moy, Jean Tinguely, Mark Tobey, Jack Tworkov, Adja Yunkers; and Dadaism, poetry and symbolism.

The addition to the Dore Ashton papers (Series 8) includes biographical material, correspondence, writings, writing project and subject files, teaching files, printed material, artwork and sketchbooks, and photographic material. Writings make up a significant part of the addition and contain hundreds of manuscripts, as well as lectures, notes, sixty notebooks, ten diaries, and writings by others. Writing project and subject files comprise over half of the addition and encompass a large collection of alphabetical files pertaining to artists, actors, writers, thinkers, and collaborators; work projects including writings, exhibitions, panels, symposia, and lecture series; as well as various other subjects and topics. The addition also contains teaching files related to Ashton's positions at the Cooper Union, the New School for Social Research, and Yale University. The photographic material in this series is also abundant and contains hundreds of original photographs of Ashton throughout all stages of her life, many with friends and family.

Series 8: Addition to the Dore Ashton Papers, circa 1928-2013

22.8 Linear feet (Box 17-40, OV 41-42)

The addition to the Dore Ashton papers includes biographical material, correspondence, writings, writing project and subject files, teaching files, printed material, artwork and sketchbooks, and photographic material. Writings make up a significant part of the addition and contain hundreds of manuscripts, as well as lectures, notes, sixty notebooks, ten diaries, and writings by others. Writing project and subject files comprise over half of the addition and encompass a large collection of alphabetical files pertaining to a wide variety of people including artists, actors, writers, thinkers, and collaborators; work projects including writings, exhibitions, panels, symposia, and lecture series; as well as various other subjects and topics. Many of the files contain research compiled for a vast number of writing projects including books, articles, and catalog essays. The addition also contains teaching files related to Ashton's positions at the Cooper Union, the New School for Social Research, and Yale University. Artwork and seven sketchbooks contain brief studies of people and places, most done while traveling. The photographic material in this series is also abundant and contains hundreds of original photographs of Ashton throughout all stages of her life, many with friends and family. Ashton is also captured giving lectures, and at exhibitions and other professional engagements.

The series is arranged as 8 subseries.

- 8.1: Biographical Material, 1943-2012
- 8.2: Correspondence, circa 1945-2012
- 8.3: Writings, 1947-2011

8.1: Biographical Material, 1943-2012

0.8 Linear feet (Box 17)

Biographical material dates from 1943-2012 and includes address books, agendas, curricula vitae, membership cards, and passports. A few files contain Ashton's personal business records regarding a donation to the Museum of Modern Art library and royalty statements from publishers. Also found here are personal and business files relating to Ashton's family, including her father and children.

8.2: Correspondence, circa 1945-2012

1.4 Linear feet (Box 17-19)

Correspondence dates from circa 1943-2012 and, as with Series 2, contains mixed business and personal correspondence from artists, family, friends, writers, publishers, museums, and galleries. While predominantly correspondence, small artworks, printed material, and writings by others are mixed in. The largest amounts of correspondence are with actor Eusebio Lázaro, art historians Fred Licht and Norbert Lynton, and her second husband Matti Megged. Types of correspondence include letters and postcards. Correspondence is in English, Spanish, and French.

8.3: Writings, 1947-2011

6.3 Linear feet (Box 19-25)

Writings date from 1947-2011 and contain manuscripts, lectures, notes, sixty notebooks, ten diaries, and a small number of writings by others. Manuscripts include hundreds of essays, articles, introductions, and reviews, as well as a few books and book chapters, including A Joseph Cornell Album (1974), A Fable of Modern Art (1980) and Delicate Thread: Teshigahara's Life in Art (1997). Manuscripts are mostly typescripts, with a small number of published versions of Ashton's writings in magazines. Occasional items of correspondence, handwritten notes, and other reference articles are found in the folders. Lectures contain typescripts of talks given at colleges, universities, museums and as part of symposia, conferences, commencements, and exhibition related programming. Notes and notebooks contain a set of index cards with research and quotations by various artists and thinkers, two folders of scattered notes on a variety of subjects, and sixty notebooks. The majority of the notebooks are travel related and contain logistical notes, jottings, lists, names and addresses, thoughts and reflections, as well as sketches. Ten diaries chronicle Ashton's day-to-day life, and contain illuminating recounts of dinner parties and conversations with artists and writers. Writings by others predominantly contain writings by art historian and friend Fred Licht, but other writings by friends are also found here, as well as one file of unidentified writings.

The subseries is arranged as 5 sub-subseries.

- 8.3.1: Manuscripts, circa 1950-2010

12.3 Linear feet (Box 25-37, OV 41)

Writing project and subject files date from circa 1950-2012 and encompass a large collection of alphabetical files pertaining to a wide variety of people including artists, actors, writers, thinkers, and collaborators; work projects including writings, exhibitions, panels, symposia, and lecture series; as well as various other subjects and topics. Many of the files contain research compiled for a vast number of writing projects including books, articles, and catalog essays. Included in this large assortment of files are manuscripts, notes, correspondence, photographic material, clippings, postcards, exhibitions catalogs and announcements, articles, brochures, and press releases. Files for Valerio Adami, Jake Berthot, Stephen de Staebler, Robert Israel, Robert Motherwell, and Octavio Paz contain many items of correspondence with the individual. The grouping of files related to Robert Motherwell document a number of projects Ashton completed on the artist, including exhibitions and books Robert Motherwell (1983) and The Writings of Robert Motherwell (2007).

8.7: Artwork and Sketchbooks, circa 1950-2000

0.3 Linear feet (Box 38)

Artwork and seven sketchbooks by Dore Ashton are done in pencil, pen, and marker on paper. Loose sketches contain many portraits and figure studies, some executed on the reverse side of printed pages. Sketchbooks capture scenes from travel, including landscapes, architecture, people, and hotel rooms. Artwork by others includes two paintings on paper and one charcoal drawing by unidentified artists.

8.8: Photographic Material, circa 1928-2010

0.7 Linear feet (Box 38-40, OV 42)

The photographic material contains hundreds of original photographs of Ashton throughout all stages of her life, many with friends and family. Ashton is also captured giving lectures, and at exhibitions and other professional engagements. Several professional photographs of Ashton taken by a number of different photographers are here as well. Loose pages of a fragile family album date from the 1940s and contain photographs pasted to paper with some written descriptions. A few of the photographs of artists and artwork are by Ashton, while the majority are copies of portraits by professional photographers. Artists include Nathan Oliveira, Robert Motherwell, Helen Frankenthaler, Jackson Pollock, Richard Lindner, and others. Travel photographs are of East Hampton, Europe, and sites in France commemorating artist Rosa Bonheur, the subject of Ashton's book, Rosa Bonheur: A Life and a Legend (1981). The last folder contains photographs given to Ashton. Formats are predominantly color and black and white prints, with few negatives and slides (35mm).
