Biographical / Historical

Morton Goldsmith (1882-1971) was a collector and patron from Scarsdale, N.Y. Ernest Fiene (1894-1965) was a painter, lithographer, etcher, illustrator, and teacher from New York. His association with Goldsmith went beyond that of artist and patron - Goldsmith also advised Fiene on investment matters, particularly the stock market. Boris Dmitrievich Grigorév [also spelled Grigoriev, or Grigoriev] (1886-1939) was a painter from the Soviet Union.

Scope and Contents

26 letters from Ernest Fiene, 1956-1964, and six letters from Boris Grigoriev, 1923-1926. Fiene writes in detail about his investments and personal finances, family and personal matters, and also about his painting and the market for his work. Grigorév sends greetings from Europe, mentions the work he is doing, current exhibitions, and asks to borrow money.
