Biographical / Historical

Duddley Huppler (1917-1988) was an artist active in New York, Chicago, Boulder, and Wisconsin.

Scope and Contents

139 pen-and-ink stipple drawings on postcard-sized board by artist Dudley Huppler. The drawings are of mice, owls, birds, and other animals, plants, flowers, birds, and human figures, created from tiny tonal pen and ink or pencil dots. Most of the postcards are signed; some are dated and annotated. Several are photographic reproductions. Twelve postcards contain correspondence with Wendall Wilcox and his wife Esther in Chicago, Illinois. Also included is an exhibition announcement (presumably mailed in an included envelope adressed to Mrs. Esther Wilcox) with pen-and-ink stipple drawings for Huppler's postcard drawings exhibition at Wakefield-Young Books in New York, .
