Biographical / Historical

Alex: The Life of Alexander Liberman (Knopf, 1993) was written by Dodie Kazanjian and her husband Calvin Tomkins. Kazanjian and Tomkins are both authors and art critics in New York, New York. Alexander Liberman (1912-1999) was Editorial Director for Conde Nast for 51 years as well as an accomplished artist.

Kazanjian was born in Newport, Rhode Island in 1952. She received her undergraduate degree from Salve Regina College in 1974, and subsequently worked a number of writing and editing jobs with the Washington Post, Washington Starr, House and Garden, Vogue, and The New Yorker. She has authored five books, held the position of communications director for the National Endowment for the Arts, and is currently the Director of the Lindemann Young Artist Development Program at the Metropolitan Opera. Tomkins is a writer and art critic who was born in Orange, New Jersey in 1925. He graduated from Princeton University in 1948, and went on to work as a journalist for Radio Free Europe and then Newsweek. Tomkins joined the staff of The New Yorker in 1960.

Alexander Liberman (1912-1999) was a Russian-American magazine executive, writer, painter, photographer, and sculptor. Liberman was born in 1912 in Kiev Russia. He was educated in London and the École des Beaux Art in Paris. While in France he was introduction to a career in publication working at Vu magazine owned by Lucien Vogel. After emigrating to New York in 1941, Liberman began working at Conde Nast Publications. For the next twenty years Liberman held multiple positions with Conde Nast's publication Vogue. Liberman was named Conde Nast's editorial director in 1964, a position he held until 1992. In addition to Liberman's career as an editor with Conde Nast, he wrote The Artist in His Studio (1960) and Marlene: An Intimate Photographic Memoir (1992), and has paintings and sculptures featured in museums and public sites worldwide.

Scope and Contents

The Dodie Kazanjian and Calvin Tomkins research materials on Alexander Liberman measures 7.8 linear feet and contains sound recordings of interviews, interview transcripts, correspondence, biographical material, clippings, and some photographs.

The interviews include cassette tapes and transcripts documenting Alexander Liberman's professional and personal life. A portion of the interviews are with Liberman himself, but a majority of the interviewees are Liberman's contemporaries and peers including artists, publishers, personal friends, and art collectors.

The collection's research files contain school records, articles and clippings, legal documents, and correspondence. Kazanjian's and Tomkins's notes and annotations are found dispersed throughout the research files. This collection also contains drafts and an edited manuscript of the book, Alex: The Life of Alexander Liberman.

Container Listing

Series 1: Interviews and Transcripts, 1987-1994

5.1 Linear feet (Shoebboxes 1-13; Box 14-15)

This series includes 216 sound cassettes and transcripts from interviews with Alexander Liberman discussing various topics, and over 60 of Liberman's peers and associates. The interview topics include Liberman's professional career as both an artist and publisher, Liberman's personal life, the interviewees relationship with Liberman, and a variety of anecdotes about the 20th century art and fashion world.

1.1: Sound Recordings, 1987-1994

It should be noted that some of the cassette tapes found in the series contain interviews with multiple individuals. The decision was made to list each interviewee individually in an alphabetical arrangement so that the interviews may be easily identified. The inventory is alphabetical, but some container numbers are not sequential as a result.

Series 2: Research Files, 1927-1999

1.2 Linear feet (Box 15; Hol 16)

Research files include Liberman's school records, citizenship and migration papers, and correspondence with family and friends as well as notable individuals such as Irving Penn, Salvador Dali, Yves Saint Laurent, and Robert Motherwell. This series also contains articles and clippings related to Liberman, fashion, artists and art history, Russian-Americans, Conde Nast Publications, and Vogue. A majority of the files contain notes and annotations made by Kazanjian and Tomkins.

This series contains folders originally created by Kazanjian and Tomkins; the contents of each folder were kept in the original order.
