Repository:	Archives of American Art
Title:	David Weinrib papers
Date:	circa 1950-2015
Identifier:	AAA.weindavi
Creator:	Weinrib, David, 1924-2016
Extent:	0.28 Gigabytes 4.6 Linear feet
Language:	Collection is in English
Summary:	The papers of multimedia sculptor, curator, and instructor David Weinrib measure 4.6 linear feet and date from circa 1950-2015. The collection documents Weinrib's life and career through a small amount of biographical material, project files, and printed and photographic material. Project files make up the bulk of the collection and document Weinrib's teaching at Black Mountain College, his curation of the Pratt Sculpture Park, and an extensive project that he undertook with his second wife, JoAnn Weinrib, in 1998 titled "Sculptors in Their Environments." This project file includes photographic documentation of numerous artists working in their studios including Vito Acconci, Louise Bourgeois, Petah Coyne, Mary Frank, Judy Pfaff, Ursula von Rydingsvard, and many others.

Biographical / Historical

David Weinrib (1924-2016) was a sculptor, ceramicist, and instructor who worked primarily in New York City. Born in Brooklyn, New York, Weinrib attended Brooklyn College before receiving his Bachelor of Fine Arts degree from Alfred University. Weinrib taught pottery at the Craft Institute at Black Mountain College from 1952-1953 with his first wife Karen Karnes. In the 1960s, Weinrib began experimenting in a variety of media and exhibited at the Howard Wise Gallery. He continued to work in different media through the decades including cast resin, cut paper, acrylic collages, and photography through collaboration with his second wife, JoAnn Weinrib. Weinrib taught at Pratt Institute for thirty years and also curated the Pratt Sculpture Park, which displays over fifty works on the urban campus. He is the recipient of numerous National Endowment for the Arts grants as well as Guggenheim and Fulbright grants. Weinrib's work is in the collections of the Walker Art Center, the Whitney Museum, and the Los Angeles County Museum of Art.

Container Listing

Series 1: Biographical Material, circa 1970-2015

0.2 Linear feet (Box 1)

Scope and Contents: Biographical material dates from circa 1970-2015 and includes Weinrib's application for tenure at Pratt Institute, provenance documentation for his artworks, and resumes. Also arranged here are a few drawings by an unknown artist illustrating words, and a few short writings both by and about Weinrib. Weinrib writes about his philosophy of teaching and learning in one essay and about the concept of fences in another.

Series 2: Project Files, circa 1968-2011

28.2 Megabytes (ER01-ER03)

2.9 Linear feet (Box 1-3, OV 5-6)

Scope and Contents: Project files date from circa 1968-2011 and demonstrate a variety of personal and professional projects and commissions Weinrib was involved in. Found here are two transcripts of interviews with Weinrib regarding his time spent at Black Mountain College. Several folders and born digital records document Weinrib's curation of the Sculpture Park at Pratt Institute, where he also taught. There is documentation from Thorpe Intermedia, a collaboratively run gallery in Garnerville, New York.

"Sculptors in Their Environments" was a collaborative project between Weinrib and his wife JoAnn Weinrib in which they documented a number of sculptors living and working in their studios. Files for this project consists primarily of photographs and negatives taken by JoAnn of many well known artists, including Vito Acconci, Louise Bourgeois, Petah Coyne, Mary Frank, Judy Pfaff, Ursula von Rydingsvard, and others. Nearly all of these artist folders contain an oversized book assembled by Weinrib from color copies of the photographs.
