copyright status and assume responsibility for usage. All requests for duplication and use must be submitted in writing and approved by Archives of American Gardens.

Biographical Note

Lois W. Poinier is a self-taught garden designer who began her career in association with her mother, Helen Page Wodell. Wodell, along with her sister, Lois Page Cottrell, had established the garden design firm of Wodell & Cottrell, in Short Hills, New Jersey in 1931. The majority of Lois W. Poinier's design work was in New Jersey. Mrs. Poinier is a member of the Garden Club of America.

Scope and Contents

The Lois W. Poinier Collection contains 1,089 35mm slides documenting before-and-after images of almost 100 gardens designed by garden designer and Garden Club of America member Lois W. Poinier of New Jersey. Most gardens are located in New Jersey, but there are some in California, Connecticut, Massachusetts, New York, Pennsylvania, and Rhode Island. The collection includes some gardens designed by Poinier's mother, Helen Page Wodell, and aunt, Lois Page Cottrell, who practiced under the firm name of Wodell & Cottrell. The collection is particularly helpful as it shows the evolution of gardens under construction and in their 'finished' state.

The collection also includes an album of images documenting gardens owned by Lois W. Poinier and her mother, Helen Page Wodell in New Jersey and Connecticut as well as an extensive slide lecture and script compiled by Poinier entitled "Ninety Years in a Garden" that documents the story and evolution of three of those gardens in New Jersey. Another series of glass lantern slides of numerous gardens dating from the 1920s and 1930s was used extensively for garden lecture purposes by both women. Finally, there are images by Lois W. Poinier of numerous private and public gardens throughout the United States and the United Kingdom that she visited.

Poinier, Lois W., Landscape architect

The folder includes work sheets and other information.

Duff Garden related holdings consist of 1 folder (17 35 mm. slides)

This garden was designed by Lois Poinier in 1967 and was located on Wellington Avenue in Short Hills. The slides document the appearance of the site before and after installation. The project involved construction of an outdoor living area and wooden fencing and the installation of shrubs and borders, all at the back of the property. A small fountain was included in the design, and the existing back stoop and steps were refurbished. The full name of the former owner who commissioned the work is not known.

Persons associated with the garden include: Lois Poinier (landscape architect, 1967) and [Mr?] Duff (former owner).

Kemmerer, Mary Elizabeth Halbach, Former owner

The folder includes work sheets and other information.

Kemmerer Garden No. 1 related holdings consist of 1 folder (23 35 mm. slides)

This garden on Stewart Road in Short Hills was one of two designed by Lois Poinier for Mary Elizabeth Halbach Kemmerer and John L. Kemmerer, Jr. (the second was NJ353). Mrs. Kemmerer was the daughter of Ernest K. Halbach, who in 1948 had married Poinier's mother, Helen Page Wodell. The slides provide long-term documentation of the landscaping's evolution and change after initial installation, which took place over a period of years from the early 1950s to the 1960s. Features include the driveway and front entry area, the patio at the back of the house, a wall fountain and pond on the patio, and flowering trees and shrubs.

Persons associated with the garden include: Lois Poinier (landscape architect, 1950s-1960s); and Mary Elizabeth Halbach Kemmerer and John L. Kemmerer, Jr. (former owners, ca. 1950-1965).

The folder includes work sheets and other information.

Lamborn Garden related holdings consist of 1 folder (2 35 mm. slides)

This garden was designed by Helen Page Wodell, probably in the late 1940s. The "before" image shows an outdoor living area atop a terrace accented by a pergola, with a garden border in the left foreground. The "after" image depicts the same area (the terrace and pergola are on the far right), which now includes a redesigned garden border and stone-walled terraces leading up to the house. The precise location of this property on Lake Road in Short Hills is unknown.

Persons associated with the garden include: Helen Page Wodell (landscape architect, ca. 1940-1950) and O. Lamborn (former owner).

Marquardt Garden related holdings consist of 1 folder (14 35 mm. slides)

This garden was designed by Lois Poinier in 1972 and was located on Joanna Way near North Pond in Short Hills. Images document the site before, during, and after landscaping, including slides taken five years after installation. A highlight of the project was construction of a terrace to take advantage of water views from the property. The terrace was complemented by a rose border and flowering trees and shrubs, and provided a comfortable setting for outdoor living. The front of the house was also landscaped with azaleas and other shrubs. The Marquardts, former owners who commissioned the design, left the property in the 1980s.

Persons associated with the garden include: Lois Poinier (landscape architect, 1972).

Poinier, Lois W., Landscape architect

Hoyt, H. H. Mr. Mrs., Former owner

The folder includes work sheets and other information.

Hoyt, H. H., Garden related holdings consist of 1 folder (40 35 mm. slides)

This garden was designed by Lois Poinier over a period of years from the early 1960s to the 1980s and was located on Lake Road in Short Hills. Images document the site before, during, and after landscaping. During the 1960s terracing and extensive borders with brick edging were installed to extend away from the back of the house down toward a sunken garden. There, a fountain and paved seating area were constructed and borders replanted. In the early 1980s the upper garden was extended and a new terrace constructed. Especially lovely in spring, the garden was designed for all-season beauty. Lois Poinier also designed a garden for the Hoyts at their home in Osterville, Massachusetts.

Persons associated with the garden include: Lois Poinier (landscape architect, 1960-1980s) and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hoyt (former owners, 1960-1985).

Poinier, Lois W., Landscape architect
Hoyt, C. O. Mr. Mrs., Former owner

The folder includes work sheets and other information.

Hoyt, C. O., Garden related holdings consist of 1 folder (23 35 mm. slides)

This garden was designed by Lois Poinier and was located on Highland Avenue in Short Hills. Images document the site before, during, and after landscaping. Stairs and a walk were constructed and landscaping installed in the front of the property. In the back, retaining walls, curving stairs, and plantings were designed to enhance a steep hillside, while a stone patio provided outdoor living space near the house. The hillside was planted with spring bulbs. Along one side of the property a former children's play area was transformed into comparatively formal borders and a central bed surrounding a fountain.

Persons associated with the garden include: Lois Poinier (landscape architect, 1960-1980s) and Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Hoyt (former owners, ca. 1958-1962).

NJ391: Millburn -- Halbach Garden No. 2

Wodell, Helen Page, Former owner

Wodell, Helen Page, Landscape_designer

Halbach, Ernest K., Former owner

The folder includes worksheets and additional information.

Halbach Garden No. 2 related holdings consist of 1 folder (36 35 mm. slides)

This was the garden of Helen Page Wodell and Ernest K. Halbach, whom she married in 1948, at the home to which they moved shortly thereafter. Wodell was the mother of landscape designer Lois Poinier and grandmother of landscape designer Page Sanders. Wodell's design, which accompanied a renovation of the house, featured a rear terrace outlined by stone walls, atop and alongside of which extensive borders were planted. Colorful borders extended beside the house and to the back of the property, accented by specimen trees and flowering trees and shrubs. The garage and driveway area was reconfigured and landscaped to accommodate an addition to the house and to tie this area to the rear terrace and back of the property. The front of the house received a new walk, stone walls, and plantings, bringing unity to the design for the entire site.

Persons associated with the garden include: Ernest K. Halbach (former owner); and Helen Page Wodell [Halbach] (former owner and landscape designer).

The folder includes worksheets and additional information.

Bumsted, Roy R., Jr., Garden No. 1 related holdings consist of 1 folder (10 35 mm. slides)

Garden Club of America Collection, ca. 1920-[ongoing].

This garden on Wells Lane in Short Hills was one of two designed by Lois Poinier for Anne Halbach Bumsted and Roy R. Bumsted, Jr. (the second was NJ324). Mrs. Bumsted was the daughter of Ernest K. Halbach, who in 1948 had married Poinier's mother, Helen Page Wodell. A tree-shaded, natural surface outdoor seating area was constructed at the back of the house and a variety of plantings--azaleas, evergreens, rhododendrons, and perennials--were installed. The house appears to have been sold shortly after the landscaping work was completed.

Persons associated with the garden include: Lois Poinier (landscape architect, 1960-1961) and Anne Halbach Bumsted and Roy R. Bumsted, Jr. (former owners, ca. 1960-1961).

This was the home of the late William Y. and Thelma Tipson Dear. In 1965 landscape architect Lois W. Poinier undertook an extensive design and installation project for the property, which is well-documented with both "before" and "after" images in the series. Poinier's plan featured an extensive herb and vegetable garden, complete with garden house, at the rear of the house, while the front of the property was highlighted by a tri-part brick walk with millstone insert. Molly Adams also photographed the property a number of years after the landscaping installation. Her images depict many aspects of the garden, including brick walkways, trellises, standards, and the overall form of the design.

Lois W. Poinier designed this garden at the home she moved to in 1992 following the sale of Vixen's Lair (NJ162) and it remained in her possession until its sale in 2005. Since there was no prior garden on the site she developed all of the landscaping elements "from scratch." Features include a green garden with pool, a wild walk with Glenn Dale azaleas, a meadow incorporated into the back lawn, and a perennial garden.

Persons associated with the garden include Lois W. Poinier (landscape architect and former owner, 1992-2005).

This garden was designed by Lois Poinier in the early 1960s around the terrace of the 1941 house. The terrace was surrounded by a low brick wall. The inside of the wall was planted with roses and the outside of the wall with tulips in the spring and then annuals once the tulips faded. Stairs leading from the terrace to the flower beds framed with railroad ties were planted with peonies and a mixture of annuals and perennials.

Persons associated with the garden include: The Hulshizer Family (former owner, 1941-1955), James H. McGraw III (former owner, 1955-1977), Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Palmer (former owners, 1977-1986), Margaret Cannella and Conor D. Reilly (former owners, 1986-2013), Lois Poinier (landscape designer, 1960s).

The garden, designed by Lois Poinier in the 1960s, was shaped and divided into planting beds by railroad ties and gravel paths. There was a small boxwood garden in the center and a variety of perennials in the surrounding beds. The house, built in 1939-1940, had a small, brick-walled terrace at the back with steps leading down to the garden. The yard was ringed by forsythia and also included a rose garden and a mature boxwood garden. When the property was purchased in 2005, the perennials, boxwoods, and roses were gone and the forsythia had become overgrown.

The entire property was redesigned in 2007 by Jan Saltiel of Edgewater Designs in Millburn, New Jersey. A large wrap-around terrace at the back of the house is ringed in boxwood. The driveway and fence were both moved, and the remnants of the fence were made into part of the terrace and landscaped path.

Persons associated with the garden include: Mr. and Mrs. Edgar J. McKay (former owners, 1939-), Mrs. Joseph E. Cox (former owner, -1999), Joseph E. Cox, III and Oden Cox Catullo (former owners, 1999-2005), Lois Poinier (landscape designer, 1960s), Jan Saltiel (landscape designer, 2007).

The Clearing, formerly known as.

During the Revolutionary era, the area was part of a farm. An estate, once known as The Clearing, was created on the site in 1889 by John Hornor Wisner. He built the present Colonial revival residence, which now serves as the administrative and educational center for the Arboretum. Mr. Wisner plotted the original gardens and Mrs. Wisner planted the first daffodils. Each April the daffodil display, enlarged from earlier times, is a major Arboretum attraction. In 1916, the new owners, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Reeves, hired a New York landscape architect to develop an overall design for the property. Mrs. Reeves was also a member of the Summit Garden Club. The Reeves family increased the daffodil plantings and, around 1925, started the rose garden. The Charles L. Reed family became the last private owners in the 1960s, adding the herb garden and creating the woodland trails.

The property became a public institution, the Reeves-Reed Arboretum, in 1974, when Summit citizens acted to protect the 12.5 acres of woodlands, glacial contours and dells, rolling lawns, and inspired gardens from encroaching development.

Persons associated with the garden include John and Isabelle Wisner (former owners, 1888-1918); Richard E. Reeves and Susie Graham Reeves (former owners, 1918-1968); Charles L. Reeves, Jr. and Ann Reeves Reed (former owners, 1968-1974); Calvert Vaux (landscape architect); Ellen Shipman (landscape architect); Carl F. Pilat (landscape architect, 1925); Babb, Cook & Willard (New York City, architect); Wodell & Cottrell (garden designers).

Located at 50 Bedford Road, and owned by Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Truslow, the house was designed by Arthur Ware, and gardens by Brinley and Halbrook of New York City. Mrs. Truslow was also a founding member of the Summit Garden Club in 1916. The large corner lot was recently subdivided and two houses built, resulting in the portico and side porch being removed from the original house. The lives of three generations of Truslow women, including Mrs. Truslow, were portrayed by her granddaughter, the late Jane Davison, in her book, "Fall of a Doll's House," recently revised as "To Make a House a Home." Additional photographs are in the Summit Garden Club Collection.

The residence originally was a horse stable built circa 1880 and the gardens now include an enclosed courtyard, designed in the 1960s during the conversion of the residence, and kitchen, vegetable and shade gardens, on about two acres, with another two acre lot kept as a mowed meadow for horseback riding and jumping. The original courtyard garden contained specimen trees including Sir Harry Lauder walking stick and two white birches, no longer existing. Ornamental features include brick and ironwork gates with a sandstone carving of a horse's head, the original horses' water trough converted into a fountain, and brick walls. Trees planted by another previous owner that are still growing include star magnolias along a split rail fence and a giant sequoia and dawn redwood that have grown to impressive heights. The current owners are growing vegetables in raised beds, containers, and hay bales. Their kitchen garden has perennials, shrubs, a peach tree, berries and herbs; both areas are fenced to keep out deer. The shade garden between the house and meadow has been augmented with more ferns, mountain laurel, viburnum and a wisteria arch, and bluestone and brick walkways. In the courtyard garden the drainage has been redone and new trees and shrubs planted, including hawthorn, kousa dogwood, redbud, elms, maples, Norway spruce, and fruit trees.

The large estate mansion was built in the late nineteenth century by a member of the Guinness family, John Burke, who emigrated from Ireland to market Guinness stout in the United State. The mansion was demolished, and the property was divided among family members of the next owners, with the stables eventually given to a granddaughter as a wedding present. In addition to the house there are two studios for photography and ceramics, a garage and woodworking shop enclosing the courtyard. Llewellyn Park was one of the first planned suburbs in the United States, noted for naturalized plantings and specimen collections of trees.

Persons associated with the garden include John Burke (former owner, circa 1880s-1892); Mr. and Mrs. William Scheerer (former owners); John Babcock and Mary Scheerer Babcock (former owners, circa 1955-1968); Charles and Margaret S. Robbins (former owners, 1967-1999); possibly Lois Poinier (garden designer, 1950s-1960s?); Mark K. Morrison and Melissa IX (landscape architect, 2000); Claudia Thornton (landscape architect, 2008).

Located in the now gated community of Llewellyn Park in West Orange, this New Jersey garden was originally landscaped sometime in the 1960s. At that time, the garden featured a flagstone walkway running along the side of the house and a screened-in porch. A side entrance to the house was designed with a brick porch with two sets of stairs framed on either side by planting beds and wall fountain with a niche. Below the fountain were stone steps and a retaining wall leading to a lawn edged with flower beds.

Persons associated with the garden include: Kenneth and Nancy Steward Walker (former owners, dates unknown), Nancy G. Burrows (former owner, 1950-1958), Donald M. Smith and Luisa G. Smith (former owners, 1958-1961), Alan L. Smith and Emilie Smith (former owners, 1961-1982), Drs. Marco and Rosario Fernando (former owners, 1982-2006).

Located in the now gated community of Llewellyn Park, West Orange, this New Jersey property was originally the site of a caretaker's cottage and squash court when it was purchased in 1945. The property was extensively rebuilt several times. The garden was landscaped in 1967 and featured a walled garden with a planting bed in the center surrounded by a gravel walkway edged with flowers and shrubs. The front of the house was designed with a flagstone patio enclosed by a low brick wall and edged with planting beds. A gravel walkway leading from the patio was framed on either side by the front lawn.

Persons associated with the garden include: Paul and Lois Scheerer (former owners, 1945-1966), Wilson S. and Barbara Elmore (former owners, 1966-1991).
