Biographical Note

Born in Galena, St. Mary's Parish, Jamaica, Percival Bryan (1906-1996) came to the United States in 1924 as a stowaway in search of adventure and opportunity. He settled in the Anacostia neighborhood of Washington, D.C., involved himself with various social and civic organizations, and was instrumental in forming the Caribbean American Inter-cultural Organization. He worked as a White House butler under Presidents Franklin D. Roosevelt (1882-1945), Harry S. Truman (1884-1972), and Dwight D. Eisenhower (1890-1969). Bryan also served as a chauffeur for Attorney General Homer S. Cummings (1870-1956) before becoming a cab driver. An autograph collector, Mr. Bryan collected over 100,000 signatures of notable individuals.

Series 4: Memorabilia, 1932 - 1973

0.1 Linear feet

Scope and Contents: This series contains memorabilia collected from various sources. Most of the executive branch memorabilia was collected during his tenure as a part-time White House butler between the administrations of Franklin Delano Roosevelt and Dwight D. Eisenhower. This series also contains documents from official ceremonies and notes from Mr. Bryan's travels. Finally, there are programs from cultural events including one from Marian Anderson's cancelled Constitution Hall concert.

Series 5: Photographs, 1939 - 1984

Image\(s\)

Scope and Contents: This series contains photographs of the Bryans and their friends. The Bryans had a very active social life and the majority of these photographs are from social gatherings with family and friends. Additionally, there are publicity photographs of African-American entertainers, some of which are autographed. However, Mr. Bryan admitted that, for the sake of consistency, he autographed some of the photos himself. Finally, there are photographs from his various employment, travels, and recreational activities.
