Sans oublier vos chers enfants. Berthe Leclerc."

Translated verso reads: [November 8 - My dear friend Sophie. It has been a while since I received news from you, I hope everything is fine and that you are in a good health- We are in a good health however we are separated from Georgette. Since the first days of July she is in Normandy. She is living in her father's family, a farm in the country - She grew up too quickly. So at 12 years' old she was already 5'7", she was anaemic and always had headaches - the doctors who saw her, said this child needs France, she needs the country - We submitted ourselves to this idea - Without forgetting your dear children.

Voici donc la raison, pour laquelle je ne t'ai fait de réponse plus tôt - Aubry est de retour de convalescence - Trinquier va probablement partir ces jours-ci en permission. Je n'ai pas pu voir Guilbaud le 9 juillet j'ai aperçu Giquet, Lesage etc... on s'est bien amusé ; j'ai bien regretté d'être malade à ce moment- Reçois cher ami une cordiale poignée de mains E. Lavallée." Translated verso reads: [Algiers, August 7, 1906 - Dear Friend - I am sorry for the delay which I am anxious to explain - I think I told you that I was supposed to be on leave around July 5; despite all my plans, I couldn't be on vacation: I had tonsillitis and a gastritis with fever and I had to take 44 days of sick leave and I had to spend 20 of these sick days at the hospital. This is the reason why I couldn't respond to you earlier - Aubry is back from convalescence- Trinquier should probably be on leave around these days - I didn't see Guilbaud- On July 9 I saw Giquet, Lesage, etc... we had fun; I regret having been sick at this time- Friendly yours- E. Underwood & Underwood

French.

Printed text on recto reads: "Copyright 1909 by Underwood & Underwood."

Printed text on verso reads, "A native village. This is a fine village in the Upper Congo valley, near Stanley Falls. The natives here are of more than average intelligence, being quite willing to send their children to the mission schools, and, indeed, many of the girls have been to normal schools and are now teaching the native children. Most of the work is done by the women, the men spending most of their time at gatherings somewhat similar to our clubs. They are really a very intelligent people, taking great interest in learning to read the mission papers, which are being printed in the native dialect."

Translated

Accompanying text on verso reads, "Elisabethville, May 04 1952. Very dear mother, Antoine and Josée. We have just received our little package with the sweets + stockings and the small blouses. These are really nice and the little one is wearing the yellow one at this very time. She tried them all and does not want to take it off. They fit her so well and are just made for her. The stockings too are very very beautiful. You must tell us how much we owe you. A thousand thanks. In the meanwhile, big kisses to all three of you."

Manuscript message and address on verso, message reads, "Elisabethville, le 21 Mai 1952. Très chers Maman, Antoine et Josée, Nous espérons que tout va toujours bien chez vous. Ici il fait bon. J'ai toujours beaucoup de travail car Amédée n'est encore revenu. Il nous a fait envoyer une lettre de Jadot disant qu'il était malade. A part cela, rien de neuf. Nous pensons à vous et recevez tous nos bons baisers. Charles, Miche et Aline." Translated message reads, "Elisabethville, May 21 1952. Very dear mother, Antoine and Josée, We hope that all is still well with you. Here it is fine. I continue to have a lot of work since Amédée is not back yet. He had a letter sent to us from Jadotville saying that he was sick. Apart from this nothing new. We think of you and send you all kinds of good kisses."

French.

Translated postcard caption reads, "9 - Native village. Kisantu."
Manuscript message and address on verso. Message reads, "Un remerciement ... à notre bienfaitrice Madame la Baronne de Tavereau qui nous continue son aimable et affectueuse protection. Les chères malades pauvres et leurs humbles infirmières prieront avec reconnaissance à la Grotte de notre Dame de Lourdes pour le bonheur et la santé de Madame et Monsieur le Baron et leur chers enfants. Le S.-C. a béni l'oeuvre des humbles d'une manière visible. Dans le Hainaut, j'ai pu trouver 4 sections importantes à Charleroi, à Luttre, à Châtelet, à Mettet et à Gosselies, où on se dévoue à la grande cause du Bon Dieu et des âmes. Notre stand à la Colonie Belge à Ch. a déjà eu beaucoup de succès. Des Gratias."
Translated message reads, "A heartfelt thanks to our benefactor the Lady Baroness de Tavereau who continues her kind and affectionate protection. The dear poor sick people and their humble nurses will pray with gratitude at the Grotto of our Lady of Lourdes for the happiness and health of the lady Baroness and the lord Baron and their dear children. The work of the Sacred Heart humbles ones in a visible fashion. In the Hainaut, I was able to find 4 important sections in Charleroi, Luttre, Châtelet, Mettet, and Gosselies where they dedicate themselves to the great cause of the Good Lord..."
and the souls. Our stand at the Belgian Colony in Ch. has already had much success. Des Gratias."

Manuscript address and message on verso, message reads: "Ma chère Ninie, Excuses-moi d'être rester si longtemps sans t'écrire mais je te dirai que depuis le nouvel an je n'ai pas encore été bien portante et la semaine dernière je suis encore restée au lit maintenant cela va mieux. Je commence à sortir et j'espère que cela ne reprendra plus. Je pensais bien aller vous faire une surprise le dimanche avant Pâques en allant diner avec vous tous mais ma santé m'ayant encore joué un vilain tour, j'ai donc du renoncer. J'espère que chez toi tout le monde va bien et que notre petite Andrée s'appuente déjà pour venir à Gilly avec Tante. Bien des baisers à Florent, Andrée et Tante et pour toi un wagon. Mon châle me fait grand plaisir et il est admiré de tout le monde mais seulement je n'ose pas dire qu'il n'est pas payé." Translated message reads, "My dear Ninie, Excuse me for remaining so long without writing to you but I must tell you that since the new year I have not been well and I spent the last week in bed. I am feeling better now, I am beginning to go out and I hope that I won't have a relapse. I had thought of surprising you on the last Sunday before Easter by joining you all for diner but my health having played me another dirty trick I had to give up the thought. I hope all are well at your home and that our little Andrée is getting ready to come to Gilly with Auntie. Lots of kisses to Florent, Andrée and Auntie and for you a wagon. My shawl pleases me a lot and is admired by all but I dare not say that it is not paid for."

Nells (Brussels)
French.

Translated postcard caption reads, "Stanleyville. Fishing grounds."

Manuscript message and address on verso, message reads: "Ma bien chère Suzanne. Cette fois j'ai ton adresse par l'intermédiaire de ton Nounou. J'espère que tu te portes bien ainsi que tes chers parents. Je t'envoie les pêcheries pour que tu te donnes une idée de la façon dont les nègres organisent leur pêche. Je profite de la présente pour vous souhaiter à tous trois une très bonne année et surtout une excellente santé et que ma suzon soit toujours première à l'école. Tes petits cadres font un bon accord sur mon buffet, ils me font bien penser à vous autres. Ma santé est bonne malgré les 7 kilos que j'ai maigri. Reçois chère Suzanne mes bons baisers et j'espère te lire bientôt. Madame Bras à Kongolo via Capetown." Translated message reads, "My very dear Suzanne. This time I obtained your address from your Nounou. I hope you and your dear parents are well. I send you the fisheries so you get an idea of how the negroes organize their fishing. I take the opportunity to wish you all a very happy new year and above all an excellent health and that my suzon always remains at the top of her class. Your small frames are very decorative on my sideboard and make me think of you all. My health is good despite the 7 kilos which I lost. Good kisses dear Suzanne and I hope to read a message from you soon."

Printed text on verso reads: "Edit. par les Frères Maristes, Stanleyville (Congo Belge)." Publisher's logo on recto and verso: "Nels." Partial postmark on verso, postage stamp removed.

Manuscript message and address on verso, message reads: "Cher Monsieur Prévot, je regrette vivement de n'avoir pas de nouvelles satisfaisantes à vous communiquer. Ni en ville, ni aux environs, je ne connais d'appartement ni de maison libre. De ce que je sais il sera très difficile à votre ami de trouver actuellement quelque chose à louer. Si l'on me découvre une maison d'ici quelque temps, je vous préviendrai sans tarder. Veuillez croire, cher Monsieur Prévot, à mes meilleurs sentiments." Translated message reads, "Dear Mr. Prévot, I am very sorry not to have good news to report to you. Neither in town, nor in the suburbs, do I know of any apartment or house available. From what I know it will be extremely difficult for your friend to find something for rent. If they help me discover a house in the near future, I will let you know without delay. Please accept, Mr. Prévot, my best greetings."

1 Postcard (collotype.; b&w; 9 x 14 cm.)

Mission Dominicaine du Congo Belge
Nells (Brussels)
French.

Translated postcard caption reads, "Rungu. A Bomokandi Rapid."

Manuscript message on verso, message reads: "Il n'y a en réalité pas plus de raisons pour l'une que pour l'autre mais cela est ainsi; croyez bien, chère Amie, que je n'en suis pas moins ravie de vos bons voeux, et si je réponds franchement au doute que vous émettiez, c'est parce que je suis sûre que vous n'auriez jamais l'idée de croire à une arrière-pensée de ma part. Je suis si contente de voir établie entre nous cette coutume amicale! Et si quelquefois je me suis trompée de Ste Jeanne, dites le moi tout de suite. Je trouve bien beau ce majestueux rapide, mais je vous avoue que je ne suis pas du tout tentée d'aller le voir. La vie de soeur missionnaire n'a aucun attrait pour moi malgré la beauté de cette vocation. A très bientôt, chère et excellente Amie, encore une fois merci de tout mon cœur, avec mes plus affectueuses amitiés et ma vive sympathie. Marie-Thérèse."

Translated message reads: "There is really no more reasons for one than for the other but that is the way it is; Rest assured, dear friend, that I am not any less delighted with your good wishes, and if I answer so frankly to the doubts that you expressed, it is because I am sure that you would never believe that I harbored some ulterior motive. I am so happy to see that we have established between us this friendly custom! And if on some occasion I was mistaken, about Saint Jeanne tell me right away. I find this majestic rapid most beautiful but I must confess that I am not in the least tempted to go see it. The life of the missionary sister does not attract me in the least despite the beauty of the calling. So long, dear and excellent friend, thank you from the bottom of my heart, with my most affectionate greetings and my warmest regards. Marie-Thérèse."

Manuscript message on verso, message reads, "Anvers, le 17 janvier 1940. Bien cher frère directeur, J'ai très bien réceptionné ton épistole et ton invitation à la calse. Je viendrai donc dimanche prochain glisser mes pieds gelés sous ta table. Mais je ne me sens pas de force à faire face à deux pugilats. Ne prends pas de mauvaise part, si je brille au repas de midi par une glorieuse absence. Mais je serai au garde-à-vous à l'heure fixée c-a-d vers 4h1/2. Comme il fera froid à la mansarde, et que pour me réchauffer, il me faudra, par état, faire appel à toutes mes énergies personnelles je m'abandonne aux bons soins de la maîtresse de logis qui garnira mon lit de couvertures compatissantes. A bientôt."

Translated message reads, "Antwerp 17 January 1940. Very dear brother director, I duly acknowledge receipt of your epistle and invitation to the waltz. I shall therefore come next Sunday to slip my frozen feet under your table. But I simply cannot face up to two fist fights. Do not be upset if my glorious absence at midday's lunch is conspicuous. However, I shall be there standing attention, at the appointed time, ie around 4 1/2 p.m.. Since it will be cold in the attic and I shall have to marshal all my personal energies, I shall entrust myself to the care of the Lady of the house who shall cover my bed with merciful blankets. Nous te souhaitons tous les deux une bonne et heureuse fête, c'est peut-être un peu tard mais nous y avions tellement songé avant la date que finalement nous l'avons laissé passée. As-tu au moins eu ton gâteau, sinon il faudra aller le chercher de suite au reçu des trois poussekes qui se trouvent au verso. Nous te souhaitons en même temps un heureux anniversaire. Je crois que tu dois avoir dans les 20 à 25 ans je ne sais plus au juste combien, mais je crois que le coeur et le caractère sont toujours jeunes. Nous nous vieillissons beaucoup plus vite à cause du soleil. Un millier de gros baisers de nous deux." Translated message reads: "We both wish you a good and happy St Charles day. It may be a little late but we thought so often about it that in the end we let the day pass. Did you at least get your cake, if not you will have to go to get it upon receiving these "pousseke" which are on the back of this card. We also wish you a happy birthday. You must be 20 to 25 years old, I do not quite remember exactly but the heart and character are still quite young. We are aging must faster because of the sun. A million kisses from both of us."

French.

Translated postcard caption reads, "Léopoldville. The Regina Hotel."

Accompanying text on verso reads, "Chère Marie et chère Georges, nous sommes bien arrivés à Léo... C'est splendide et grandiose. Nous sommes assez pris par les histoires officielles mais enfin pas trop! Aujourd'hui: revue. Si vous nous écrivez, adresse: Hôtel Régina Léo. Nous embrassons bien fort nos petits choupets. Bons baisers affectueux aux 2 grands." Translated accompanying text on verso reads, "Dear Marie and dear Georges, We arrived safely in Léo. It is splendid and imposing. We are kept pretty busy with the official stuff, but not excessively so. Today: parade. If you write us: Regina Hotel Leo. We kiss warmly our little kiddes. Kisses for the 2 big ones."

Manuscript message on verso message reads: "Mon cher Marcel, comme il ne m'est pas possible d'aller encore vous rendre une petite visite à l'hôpital, je vous adresse la présente espérant qu'elle vous distraira quelques minutes de la monotonie au lieu où vous vous trouvez forcément. Nous sommes bien rentrées hier et avons eu du monde à la soirée, comme toujours, on a causé gouvernement!!! et chers petits soldats! Nous avons rencontré un "pass" nègre comme celui que vous voyez au verso, il avait rudement l'air fier et heureux de ses succès. Tout le monde le regardait en souriant. J'espère que le mieux s'accentue et que nous aurons bientôt le plaisir de vous revoir ici et tout à fait guéri. Souhaitez de notre part bon courage et bonne chance à votre camarade pour son pied, nous formons tous les meilleurs voeux pour qu'il n'ait rien de grave et qu'on ne doive plus l'opérer. Mode économique que d'aller à "pîdchô" comme le couple du verso; ils épargnent 500 francs à eux deux! Il n'est pas mal de visage hein lui pour un moricaud! Je souhaite pour vous que vous ayez jeudi les visites de Jules (j'ai oublié son nom de famille), Mr. Mallarme, et vos amis soldats, afin que vous ne soyez pas tout seul alors que les autres malades sont entourés. Je vais écrire à Berke et lui conter notre visite auprès de vous, cela lui fera plaisir ainsi qu'à votre chère Maman. A propos, consolez-vous du départ des Anglais... les cigarettes restent!!! Valère m’a dit qu'on en vendait chez les marchands de tabac. Pendant que je vous écrit, j'entends (chez le voisin) écorcher le grand air de "Louise" pour l'amour du Seigneur est-il possible de se faire entendre quand on chante aussi mal, j'en ai les nerfs qui branlent! C'est épouvantable! La chanteuse (si on peut l'appeler ainsi) ferait ruer un cheval de bois. Valère qui est un profane crie: Fermez les portes!"

Translated verso message reads: "My dear Marcel, since it is not possible to pay you a little visit at the hospital, I send you this present note hoping that it will distract you for a few minutes from the monotony of the place where you are residing per force. We got back home safely yesterday and have had visits in the evening. As usual we talked "government"!!! and dear little soldiers! We met a negro just like the one you see overleaf, he seemed pretty proud and happy with his successes. Everyone was looking at him and smiling to him. I hope you keep getting better and that we shall have the pleasure of seeing you here and fully recovered. Extend our best wishes of good courage and luck to your comrade for his foot. We are wishing very much that is condition not be serious and that more surgery not be necessary. It is a cheap way to go barefoot like the couple overleaf, together they save 500 francs! He has got a nice face, don't you think, for a dark skinned? Wish you to have the visits of Jules (I forgot his last name), Mr. Mallarme and your soldier friends next thursday, so that you are not lonely..."
while the other sick people are surrounded with loved ones. I shall write to Berke and tell our visit to you. It will please her and your dear mother. By the way, get over the departure of the English... the cigarettes are staying! Valere told me that they were being sold at the tobacconists. As I write, I hear (at the neighbor's) the great aria of "Louise" being murdered, for the love of God how is it possible to have oneself heard when one sings poorly, it grates on my nerves. It's awful! The singer (if you can call her that) would have a wooden horse kick. Valere is shouting: "Shut the doors!"."

Translated recto message reads: "Here is "Madame la Caporale" a nice "Sker" for you to do. Take advantage of the situation. Wouldn't you enjoy a beautiful negro girl? I am going to leave you because my inkwell could go on strike, find that I use it too much for my five cents, it could well be within its rights. Good bye dear little Marceleke, we send you all our greetings and fat kisses. Speck asks me to tell you that he gives you his best deal and puts a "lekkskes" on your hand. Your devoted Mathilde. Brussels, Monday 20-1-19."
