Biographical Note

Artist, writer, professor and multicultural women's art advocate Betty LaDuke (b. 1933) was born in the Bronx to Russian and Polish immigrant parents. She attended California State University in Los Angeles and the Otis College of Art and Design. After three years of teaching junior high art in East Los Angeles, LaDuke moved to Ashland, Oregon in 1964 to accept a position in the art department at Southern Oregon University, where she would teach for over 30 years. Beginning in 1972, she began to undertake annual research journeys to Asia, Latin America, Oceania and Africa, where she found inspiration for the paintings and prints that would make up her circulating exhibits. Upon her retirement from teaching in 1996, LaDuke began to travel to project sites of Heifer International, a humanitarian organization concerned with world hunger and environmental sustainability. These experiences inspired a new phase of her work, including a return to mural painting. LaDuke has published several books on women's art and has been the subject of a book by Gloria Feman Orenstein, entitled Multi-Cultural Celebrations: the Paintings of Betty LaDuke 1972-1992.

Scope and Contents

The collection consists of 3,194 color photographs (20 x 24 inches or smaller), 2,488 color 35 mm negatives, a copy of a sketchbook, 11 posters, 24 art prints, biographical materials, correspondence, printed materials, and 3 DVDs, created by Betty LaDuke in circa 1981-2018.

The majority of the photographs were taken in Eritrea, including in Agordat, Asmara, Barentu, Emebet, Geleba, Keren, Massawa, Mendefera, Nakfa, Senafe and Serona, though some were taken in Ethiopia, especially in Lalibela. Images depict architecture, agricultural work, beadwork, weaving, village scenes, artists, artists at work, artworks, markets, celebrations, scenic views, animals, churches and mosques. Most of the photos depict Kunama or Saho peoples, particularly women and children. LaDuke also regularly photographed war zones during the Border War, especially those in Nakfa and Gelebe, portraying Internally Displaced Persons (IDP) camps, Red Cross workers, World Food Program supply tents and the Tacumbia Food Distribution Center. Other notable subjects include the National Union of Eritrean Women (NUEW), artwork in the Saint George Gallery and children at Dekemhare School.

LaDuke frequently documented art workshops that she attended, artwork and exhibits. Many of her photos depict artwork by Berhane Adonais, Michael Adonais, Mussie Asgodam, Haile Berthe, Danny Dafla, Isak Fasil, Josief Idris, Terhas Iyassu, Elsa Yacob, Abraham Mogos, Kiros Adebe, Tzeghereda Yohannes, Teamrat Ghidei, Afewerki Asmeron, Demoz Russom and Jacob Abraha, as well as the artists themselves at work, socializing or posing by their finished artwork. Additionally, the collection includes four pen and ink drawings by the artists Afewerki Haile, Yoseif G. Idris and Fessahaie Zemicael, and a number of art prints by LaDuke.

A copy of LaDuke's sketchbook depicts scenes in Asmara and surrounding areas, Tekul, Aidkeh, Keren, Barantu, Tocumbia, Mendefera, Senafe and Massawa. LaDuke sketched village, market and street scenes, celebrations, churchgoers at a Coptic Church, animals, Saho basketmakers, Kunama peoples, St. George's Restaurant and grain mill workers, among other subjects.

Biographical Materials include artist statements and biographical notes, a letter announcing LaDuke as winner of the Vida Scudder Award, a blank registration form for the Northern National Art Competition, for which LaDuke served as judge, a letter to LaDuke from Secretary-General Kofi A. Annan, exhibit schedules and a resume.

The printed material in the collection includes clippings of publications in which LaDuke's artwork is featured, such as Sojourners, Ashland Magazine, School Arts Magazine and Calyx, promotional materials and a holiday notecard produced by Heifer International, announcements and posters. Exhibition files for LaDuke's shows include clippings, announcements, catalogs, photos, correspondence and a CD-ROM of her photos. Additionally, there are a substantial number of exhibit reviews published in such magazines and newspapers as The Oregonian, The Christian Science Monitor and the Durango Herald.

Finally, the collection contains three DVDs entitled Africa Between Myth and Reality (circa 2000), Betty LaDuke: Art Reflection Life (2006), and With Love from Eritrea (2018) which document LaDuke's artistic process and artwork.

Container Listing

Series 1: Photographic Prints, 1994-2002

3,031 Photographs (Binders 1-7; color; 5 x 7 inches or smaller)

Scope and Contents: The majority of the photographs were taken in Eritrea, including in Geleba, Massawa, Emebet, Keren, Senafe, Barentu, Asmara, Nakfa, Serona, and Agordat, though some were taken in Ethiopia, especially in Lalibela. Images depict architecture, agricultural work, village scenes, artists, artists at work, artworks, markets, celebrations, scenic views, drumming and Kunama and Saho people, particularly women and children. LaDuke documented art workshops that she taught or attended, portraying artists such as Berhane Adonais, Mussie Asgodam, Josief Idris, Elsa Jacob, Isak Fasil, Haile Wolde Michael, Iyassu Terhas, Danny Dafla and Elsa Zaid. In addition to photographing the artists at work, LaDuke's photos capture the finished, exhibited artworks, including at an art show at the U.S. Information Services (USIS) in Eritrea in 1994. Some of the photos depict war zones, particularly those in Nakfa and Geleba, showing the Red Cross campsite, internally displaced persons camps, and the Tacoumbia Food Distribution Center. Other notable subjects include a meeting of the National Union of Eritrean Women (NUEW), artwork in the Saint George Gallery and children at Dekemhare School.

Arrangement: This series is arranged in rough chronological order.

General: To view corresponding negatives, see Series 10.

Processing Information: The descriptions for this series were taken from notes provided by LaDuke. The images are now item-level cataloged and available online (see Series 10).

Series 10: Negatives, 1994-2002

2488 Negatives (photographic) (color; 35 mm)

Arrangement: This series is arranged in rough chronological order.

Scope and Contents: The majority of the negatives were taken in Eritrea, including in Geleba, Massawa, Emebet, Keren, Senafe, Barentu, Asmara, Nakfa, Serona, and Agordat, though some were taken in Ethiopia, especially in Lalibela. Images depict architecture, agricultural work, village scenes, artists, artists at work, artworks, markets, celebrations, scenic views, drumming and Kunama and Saho people, particularly women and children. LaDuke documented art workshops that she taught or attended, portraying artists such as Berhane Adonais, Mussie Asgodam, Josief Idris, Elsa Jacob, Isak Fasil, Haile Wolde Michael, Iyassu Terhas, Danny Dafla and Elsa Zaid. In addition to photographing the artists at work, LaDuke's photos capture the finished, exhibited artworks, including at an art show at the U.S. Information Services (USIS) in Eritrea in 1994. Some of the photos depict war zones, particularly those in Nakfa and Geleba, showing the Red Cross campsite, internally displaced persons camps, and the Tacoumbia Food Distribution Center. Other notable subjects include a meeting of the National Union of Eritrean Women (NUEW), artwork in the Saint George Gallery and children at Dekemhare School.

Processing Information: Not all negatives have prints and not all prints have negatives (see series 1). Negatives digitized in 2019.
