Scope and Contents

The collection consists of a scrapbook, now disbound, containing rough tracings from miscellaneous sources including Smithsonian Annual Reports and William M. Beauchamp's articles in the New York State Museum Bulletin. The drawings are mostly pipes of North America, but include some Egyptian and classical subjects. Some drawings have been labeled by Frederick Webb Hodge.

Please note that the contents of the collection and the language and terminology used reflect the context and culture of the time of its creation. As an historical document, its contents may be at odds with contemporary views and terminology and considered offensive today. The information within this collection does not reflect the views of the Smithsonian Institution or National Anthropological Archives, but is available in its original form to facilitate research.
