Administrative Information

Provenance

Previously titled "Field notes, short papers, and excerpts from field diaries."

Citation

Manuscript 2032, National Anthropological Archives, Smithsonian Institution

---

Scope and Contents

Includes short papers on aspects of Zuni life that were never published as well as less organized field notes.

Bibliography

Notes on some sheets indicate that Stevenson was planning a paper on the Zuni pantheon and ceremonies, but these preliminary notes were not directly incorporated into any published paper by Stevenson. The material was presumably a part of her data that went into her paper, "The Zuni Indians: Their Mythology, Esoteric Societies, and Ceremonies," published in Bureau of American Ethnology-AR 23, 1904.
