Citation

Manuscript 2116-a, National Anthropological Archives, Smithsonian Institution

Scope and Contents

Vocabulary on slips taped to larger sheets. Probably copied from Number 796-e (apparently the original, also in Powell's hand, but semantically arranged.) See also Number 1489, a scribe's copy arranged by English, but apparently made some time before 2116-a was taped to sheets and before a number of the slips were lost, since number 1489 contains more terms than 2116-a. A complete tally with number 796-e remains to be made. (M. C. Blaker and Kay Fowler, 1965.)
