Scope and Contents

The collection consists of three (3) drawings of kivas at San Ildefonso Pueblo. The drawings were commissioned by the Bureau of American Ethnology, possibly for Matilda Coxe Stevenson. The collection also contains a purchase order and invoice for the drawings.

Please note that the contents of the collection and the language and terminology used reflect the context and culture of the time of its creation. As an historical document, its contents may be at odds with contemporary views and terminology and considered offensive today. The information within this collection does not reflect the views of the Smithsonian Institution or National Anthropological Archives, but is available in its original form to facilitate research.
