Administrative Information

Acquisition Information

Myer, W. H.

Provenance

Reported to have been collected by Capt. David N. McDonald, US Army ca. 1880-85 in the western United States. Purchased from McDonald's estate by W.E. Myer, who consulted with the BAE regarding their identification in the 1920s. Donated to the BAE in 1952 by Mrs. Annie Lee Myer Turner and Mr. W.H. Myers in memory of their father. It is not clear from the correspondence whether the collection history applies to both books or only to one.

Citation

Manuscript 4452-a, National Anthropological Archives, Smithsonian Institution

Biographical / Historical

David N. McDonald graduated from the US Military Academy at West Point in 1877. He served at Fort Sill, IT in 1878 and then at Fort Reno 1878-81, subsequently being posted in New Mexico, Arizona, and California.

Scope and Contents

Vol. 1: 46 drawings of war scenes on leaves of ruled and numbered paper from a ledger book, now disbound, covers retained. Inside of cover inscribed D.N. McDonald, US Army. Vol. 2: 54 drawings on leaves of ruled and numbered paper from a ledger book, now disbound, covers not retained. Scenes are primarily of warfare, but also include horse raids, courting, and two maps. Several pages inscribed "Washee," a name recorded among both Cheyennes and Arapahoes in the 1880s.

Local Numbers

NAA MS 4452-a

Local Note

Several pages in vol. 2 inscribed with word Washee. Misreading of this as Nashee led to erroneous speculation that the drawings were associated with the Apache leader Naiche.

Place

United States Indian Territory Fort Reno.

Place

United States Oklahoma Fort Reno.

Book of drawings by anonymous Arapaho artists, ca. 1880

1 Item (volume of 54 drawings; graphite, colored pencil, and ink; 21 x 32 cm.)

McDonald, David N., Collector

David N. McDonald graduated from the US Military Academy at West Point in 1877. He served at Fort Sill, IT in 1878 and then at Fort Reno 1878-81, subsequently being posted in New Mexico, Arizona, and California.

54 drawings on leaves of ruled and numbered paper from a ledger book, now disbound, covers not retained. Scenes are primarily of warfare, but also include horse raids, courting, and two maps. Several pages inscribed "Washee," a name recorded among both Cheyennes and Arapahoes in the 1880s.

Subgroup

Myer, W. H.

Reported to have been collected along with MS 4452-a1 by Capt. David N. McDonald, US Army ca. 1880-85 in the western United States. Purchased from McDonald's estate by W.E. Myer, who consulted with the BAE regarding their identification in the 1920s. Donated to the BAE in 1952 by Mrs. Annie Lee Myer Turner and Mr. W.H. Myers in memory of their father. It is not clear from the correspondence whether the collection history applies to both books or only to one.

NAA MS 4452-a2

Local Note

Candace Green identified all the drawings in this book were probably drawn by Arapaho artists. Several pages are inscribed with the word Washee. Misreading of this as Nashee led to erroneous speculation that the drawings were associated with the Apache leader Naiche.

Place

United States Indian Territory Fort Reno.

United States Oklahoma Fort Reno.
