Biographical Note

George Hunt (1854-1933) was an ethnographer best known for his work with anthropologist Franz Boas. Hunt's ethnographic notes and artifact collections provided the first ethno-history of the Kwakwaka'wakw culture.

Scope and Contents

The collection consists of fourteen (14) drawings: four (4) watercolors and ten (10) pencil drawings on 5 sheets of ruled paper. The drawings may have been created or collected by George Hunt.

Please note that the contents of the collection and the language and terminology used reflect the context and culture of the time of its creation. As an historical document, its contents may be at odds with contemporary views and terminology and considered offensive today. The information within this collection does not reflect the views of the Smithsonian Institution or National Anthropological Archives, but is available in its original form to facilitate research.
