Scope and Contents

The collection consists of notes, microfilm, and bibliographic material related to Gearing's research on eighteenth and early nineteenth century Cherokees. Included is information about towns and individual Cherokees that derive from library sources.

Please note that the contents of the collection and the language and terminology used reflect the context and culture of the time of its creation. As an historical document, its contents may be at odds with contemporary views and terminology and considered offensive today. The information within this collection does not reflect the views of the Smithsonian Institution or National Anthropological Archives, but is available in its original form to facilitate research.
