1910, "Los Angeles Day," for the International Aviation Meet held January 10-20, 1910, at Dominguez Field, Los Angeles, California. Inside pages list officers of the meet, aviators and balloons scheduled to fly that day, and lists of prizes for flights by "Aeronefs" (aircraft), dirigible airships, and spherical balloons. Back cover includes portrait photograph of aviator Louis Paulhan, and "Willard alighting on track at meet in Cincinnati." (One-half right front view of Curtiss 1910 Pusher biplane piloted by Charles F. Willard coming in for a landing at a race track.)

Notes: 13 x 11 inch program, final and official results book for the 1963, 17th Annual All-Woman Transcontinental Air Race Powder Puff

Derby. Book reflects the pilots, co-pilots, and sponsors of the aircraft; the entry number, make/model/horsepower of the aircraft, and its average speed times. Record book was produced by the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey. Cover consists of a background air chart of the mid-Atlantic region of the United States, the event name, and a compass to the left of the text. The name "Casey" appears in the upper right hand corner of the cover.
