Administrative Information

Acquisition Information

Manpower is a portion of the Business Ephemera Series of the Warshaw Collection of Business Americana, Accession AC0060 purchased from Isadore Warshaw in 1967. Warshaw continued to accumulate similar material until his death, which was donated in 1971 by his widow, Augusta. For a period after acquisition, related materials from other sources (of mixed provenance) were added to the collection so there may be content produced or published after Warshaw's death in 1969. This practice has since ceased.

Scope and Contents

This subject category- Manpower- contains information created by Manpower, Inc. which was founded in 1948 in Milwaukee, Wisconsin by attorneys Elmer Winter and Aaron Scheinfeld. It was established to support training and education for workers. Folder one contains a printed advertisement, telephone directory information and a form. Folder two includes the White Glove Training Manuals; materials created for working women; with topics relating to temporary office work, adapting to office routine, telephone technique, shortcuts in typing and dictation, office procedures, beauty, wardrobe and personal grooming. There are also a few White Glove forms created for training purposes.

The remainder of the materials covers the New York State Department of Labor relating to on the job training, the Manpower Development and Training Act, automation, plus the United States Department of Labor, and other organizations.
