Administrative Information

Acquisition Information

Milk is a portion of the Business Ephemera Series of the Warshaw Collection of Business Americana, Accession AC0060 purchased from Isadore Warshaw in 1967. Warshaw continued to accumulate similar material until his death, which was donated in 1971 by his widow, Augusta. For a period after acquisition, related materials from other sources (of mixed provenance) were added to the collection so there may be content produced or published after Warshaw's death in 1969. This practice has since ceased.

Processing Information

In 2016, with funding provided by the Smithsonian Institution's Collections Care and Preservation Fund, the Archives Center at the National Museum of American History implemented the use of minimal level processing standards to increase information about and facilitate access to more of our collections. A large portion of stored material from the original acquisition received minimal level processing, which resulted in additions to this Subject category. This effort included basic arrangement and replacement of non-archival housing for long-term stability, but staples and other fasteners have not all been removed. Revisions to the encoded finding aid were made to reflect the added content in context to the previously processed material.

Minimal level processing and enhancement of the machine-readable finding aid completed by Nicole Blechynden, September 2017.

Restrictions

Collection is open for research. Some items may be restricted due to fragile condition.

Conditions Governing Use

Collection items available for reproduction, but the Archives Center makes no guarantees concerning copyright restrictions. Other intellectual property rights may apply. Archives Center cost-recovery and use fees may apply when requesting reproductions.

Scope and Contents

Representing a more narrow aspect of the dairy, the milk subject category focuses on condensed milk producer and consumer market. Materials include bills and receipts, advertisements, images, business cards, can labels, milk pans, stanchions, infant milk depots, patents and trademarks, publications, and miscellaneous.

Brand Name Index

The following is a compilation of the brand names for products in this subject category. Since most of the materials in the Warshaw Collection are arranged alphabetically by company name, this list is intended to assist the researcher in finding information about products when only the brand name is known. Company names are provided for each product along with product type. Once the company name has been identified using this list, the researcher should consult the container list to find the location of the desired materials. This list is not comprehensive but instead offers information on those products that were easily identifiable.
