Container Listing

Subseries 1.1: Clients Black and White Photographs, 1888-1993, undated

Scope and Contents: The subseries clients is predominantly black and white photographs but it also includes order envelopes and materials, and other photographic materials that were part of the order. The clients are arranged in alphabetical order by last name or by the first word of an organization's name. The materials document the orders placed by clients of the Scurlock Studio but in some cases an individual, organization, or business in an image that was not connected to a known order was identified. The photograph was then placed under the identified individual, organization, or business and may not represent an actual client of the Studio. The majority of orders are formal portrait sittings of individuals but there are also family portraits, events, organizations, businesses, and informal images. In addition, not all photographs in this subseries were taken by the Scurlock Studio; there are there photos by Abdou Daoud Ackad and other studios or photographers that were sent in to make copies.

[Mrs. Oscar \[Jessie Williams\] De Priest \[paper photoprint\], \[June 19?\] 1929](#)

1 Item

Photographer: Scurlock, Addison N., 1883-1964

Language: English.

Notes: Silver gelatin on paper, 10 x 8", unmounted.

Series 1, Box 1.1.A3.

Studio shot, full-figure. Subject wears hat and light-colored dress with pleated skirt, holds small handbag, while standing beside a studio bench. Ink on verso: "A 180 / Mrs. Oscar De Priest."

Jessie De Priest was the wife of Chicago Congressman Oscar De Priest. This standing view was published in the Chicago Daily Defender, Saturday, June 22, 1929 with a caption, and depicts her wearing the costume she wore to a White House tea for Congressional wives at the invitation of Mrs. Herbert Hoover. As Jessie Williams De Priest was one of the first African American women to be entertained by a first lady, the event created a stir, especially among Southerners, the caption for this picture notes. The Daily Defender article, "Interesting News of the Week in Pictures," states that the reception occurred on Wednesday of that week, which would have been June 19, presumably the same date as the photograph. The Scurlock credit line is included in the caption. (Information provided by Ms. Shelley Stokes-Hammond, June 6, 2003.)

Subseries 1.2: Subjects Black and White Photographs, 1915-1985, undated

Scope and Contents: The materials in the subseries subjects are black and white photographs, and the subjects are arranged alphabetically. The materials document subjects that are both non-human objects and unidentified people that could not be connected to an order placed at the Scurlock Studio by a client. The non-human subjects largely include art, commercial images, buildings, and places of interest in Washington, D. C. The unidentified individuals are mostly portrait sittings of men and women that could not be identified or connected to an order. Also, included are photographs of children, couples, groups, events, and organizations. In addition, not all photographs in this subseries were taken by the Scurlock Studio; there are photos by Abdou Daoud Ackad and other studios or photographers that were sent in to make copies.
