Biographical / Historical

Anthony M. Moreno was born to [Pasquel] Moreno and Maria [Cleotilde] Garcia on January 30, 1923 in Los Angeles County, California. He attended the Theodore Roosevelt High School where he graduated in 1941. Moreno served in the United States Marines from 1943-1946. He married Margaret Carrera on October 22, 1949. Before becoming an art director, Moreno attended the Art Center School and graduated in 1953. As an art director, he worked for numerous United States companies including Global Marketing, Incorporated; Dozier Eastman Company; Weider Health and Fitness, Incorporated; and Ralph M. Parsons. Moreno died on February 8, 1982 at the age of fifty-nine in Montebello, Los Angeles County, California.

Scope and Contents

Collection primarily documents commercial artwork created by Latino graphic artist and designer Anthony Moreno for United States companies. It consists of client files including original artwork, purchase orders, annual reports, product packaging, magazines, and some promotional materials. In addition, a United States Marine Corps discharge certificate, unemployment documents, a resume, photographs, business cards, and a customized desk notepad are also found among the materials. Information relating to Moreno's personal life is not included in the collection. Most of the materials are undated and are arranged in alphabetical order.

Arrangement

Collection is arranged into one series.
