Administrative Information

Acquisition Information

This collection was donated in 2005 to NMAI by Ross Byington, a US Department of Education employee who obtained the materials from Ella Clark, a teacher in Oklahoma who collected these materials during her career.

Processing Information

Collection processed by Emily Moazami, Supervisory Archivist, 2019.

Preferred Citation

Identification of specific item; Date (if known); Ella Clark collection of American Indian Educational filmstrips, box # and folder #, NMAI.AC.382; National Museum of the American Indian Archives Center, Smithsonian Institution.

Restrictions

The original filmstrips and audio cassettes are restricted due to condition. Textual material is accessible by appointment only, Monday - Friday, 9:30 am - 4:30 pm. Please contact the archives to make an appointment.

Conditions Governing Use

Some materials in this collection may be protected by copyright. It is the user's responsibility to ascertain whether any such rights exist, and to obtain any other permission necessary to reproduce materials. Please contact NMAI Archives Center for more information.

Biographical / Historical

Ella Clark was a teacher in Wagoner, Oklahoma (not to be confused with Ella E. Clark, who studied the oral histories of Indigenous people of North America). Little else is known about Ella Clark's biography.

Scope and Contents

This collection contains educational filmstrips and accompanying audio cassettes pertaining to the history and culture of American Indians. The collection also contains associated teacher guides, scripts, quizzes, and filmstrip viewing equipment. The materials were published from circa 1970-1984.

Arrangement

This collection is intellectually arranged in two series. Series 1: Filmstrips and associated materials and Series 2: Filmstrip viewers. The filmstrips in series 1 are first organized by publisher, then by date. The materials in this collection have been physically separated for preservation purposes. The original filmstrip boxes are located in archival record center boxes 1-5; the filmstrips and sound cassettes are located in boxes 6-18; and the textual material is located in box 19.

Names and Subject Terms

This collection is indexed in the online catalog of the Smithsonian Institution under the following terms:

Subjects:

Audio-visual education
Indians of North America

Types of Materials:

Filmstrips

Container Listing

Series 1: Filmstrips and associated materials

Scope and Contents: This series contains educational filmstrips and accompanying audio cassettes pertaining to the history and culture of American Indians. The collection also contains associated teacher guides, scripts, and quizzes.

The filmstrips were published circa 1970-1984 by various publishers including Troll Associates; Coronet Media; Encyclopedia Britannica; January Productions; Educational Dimensions Group; Eye Gate Media, Inc.; Clearvue, Inc.; Office of Indian Education; Centron Education Films; Society for Visual Education; Universal Education and Visual Arts; Croft; Rand McNally and Co.; and The New York Times.

Some materials have school years written on them, which probably indicates when the filmstrips were acquired or shown to classes. These are not the copyright dates.
