Scope and Contents

This collection contains the one original Unrecognized Stories zine layout and one printed copy made for distribution. The zine was created by Bvlbancha Public Access (BPA) as a recap of BPA's 2021 Indigenous Gulf Stream which featured a 24-hour live streamed media art event which celebrated a realistic representation on (and by) contemporary Indigenous communities in the Gulf South through interviews, photography and media art.

The project focuses on documenting the voices and experiences of living members of Louisiana's non-federally recognized tribal nations including Houma, Atakapa-Ishak, Avogel, Adai, Clifton Choctaw, Bayou Lacombe Choctaw, Isle de Jean Charles Band, Choctaw-Apache Tribe of Ebarb, Pointe-au-Chien. The project celebrates Louisiana Indigenous identity for internal community building and as well as for outsider reading.

The zine includes written word, poetry, pictures, graphic designs, and other artistic contributions.

Unrecognized Stories interviews were conceptualized by Hali Dardar and Jeffery Darensbourg, and produced by Ida Aronson, Hali Dardar, and PowerShift Network, with writing from Jeffery Darrensbourg. The money and administrative support for this project came from the National Performance Network 2020 Southern Artists for Social Change Grant.
