Descriptive Entry

These records document education activities primarily prepared to accompany exhibitions. Activities include drawing, question-and-answer, and hands-on exercises. The projects are designed to engage families and children, as they wander through an exhibit, encouraging closer examination of the cultural significance of objects or techniques used to produce them. There is also one calendar for an African film festival held in the Fall of 1998.

Materials include activity booklets, hands-on activity sheets, and a film festival schedule.
