Administrative Information

Preferred Citation

Smithsonian Institution Archives, Accession 04-116, National Museum of American History. Division of the History of Technology, Exhibition Records

Descriptive Entry

This accession consists of the records of Margaret Vining, Museum Specialist, which document the following exhibitions at the National Museum of American History: Fast Attacks and Boomers: Submarines in the Cold War (2000), a permanent exhibit, created to coincide with the U.S. Submarine Force Centennial; and West Point in the Making of America, 1802-1918, a temporary exhibit which observed the Bicentennial of the United States Military Academy at West Point. Vining was co-curator of both exhibitions.

Materials include correspondence, memoranda, and notes; exhibition proposals and planning information; scripts; budget summaries; meeting agendas and minutes; brochures; reports; floor plans; exhibition design, and installation information; photographs; labels; website outline, educational programs, and special events information; and agreements. Some materials are in electronic format.
