Administrative Information

Preferred Citation

Smithsonian Institution Archives, Accession 06-243, Conservation and Research Center (National Zoological Park), Noah's Network Records

---

Descriptive Entry

This accession consists of records documenting the programs and activities of the Noah's Network, formerly known as the NOAHS (New Opportunities in Animal Health Sciences) Center and the NOAHS Network. Noah's Network is a collaboration of geneticists, veterinarians, and reproductive biologists to advance species science and conservation. Noah's Network also serves as a development, marketing, and education network for the organization. Noah's Network and its predecessor organizations are administered by the National Zoological Park, but remain a separate organization. Materials include correspondence and memoranda; newsletters and other publications; clippings; photographs; curriculum guides; mission statement; and related documents.
