Smithsonian Institution Archives, Accession 11-233, Smithsonian Institution, Office of Advancement, Website Records

Descriptive Entry

This accession consists of two websites maintained by the Office of Advancement as they existed in June 2011. The Friends of the Smithsonian website, crawled on June 20, 2011, and the James Smithson Society website, crawled on June 29, 2011, both provide information about membership programs and list special events for members. The James Smithson Society is the highest level of membership within the Friends of the Smithsonian and its website features information specific to the Society. The Friends of the Smithsonian website promotes all of its membership levels. Some content is duplicated between the websites. Materials are in electronic format.
