Descriptive Entry

This accession consists of "George Washington: A National Treasure," a website maintained by the National Portrait Gallery, as it existed on July 26, 2011. The website was developed to accompany the traveling exhibition of the same name which featured the original Gilbert Stuart painting of George Washington. The website includes an interactive portrait highlighting particular aspects of the painting; teacher and family guides; themed games and activities; student artwork; historical fiction and nonfiction for children; biographical information about Washington; and an introduction to the exhibition. Materials are in electronic format.
