Descriptive Entry

This accession consists of the Piano 300: Celebrating Three Centuries of People and Pianos website as it existed on March 26, 2013. The website originally accompanied an exhibition of the same name that was produced by the National Museum of American History and displayed at the Smithsonian International Gallery from March 9, 2000 through October 21, 2001. The website includes information about the exhibition, donors, related performances, and the television special Piano Grand! that was produced for the Public Broadcasting Service. The website also includes a timeline of piano history and links to educational resources. The website had not been updated since the exhibition and was taken down shortly after it was crawled. Materials are in electronic format.
