Smithsonian Institution Archives, Accession 15-063, Smithsonian Libraries, Website Records

Descriptive Entry

This accession consists of the Smithsonian Institution Libraries (SIL) website and blog as they existed on April 30, 2014.

The SIL website includes information about the library system and its projects, collections, resources, and activities. In addition, the website includes webcasts, press releases, and the "e-Connect Newsletter." Due to technical issues, some images are missing, particularly those embedded in the newsletters. This accession does not include detailed collections information or digital collection materials.

The "Unbound" blog features collection items and projects as well as provides research and preservation tips. The blog was established in December 2007.

Materials are in electronic format.
