Descriptive Entry

This accession consists of the "Vietnamese American Heritage Project" website as it existed on December 24, 2014. The project was founded in 2004 to commemorate over 30 years of mass Vietnamese migration to the United States, telling the story of challenge, sacrifice, and change. The website includes information about the project and its exhibitions and programs as well as educational resources. The website does not appear to have been updated since 2010. Materials are in electronic format.
