Descriptive Entry

This accession consists of the blog of the Biodiversity Heritage Library Consortium (BHL) as it existed on March 22, 2015. BHL is a consortium of major natural history, botanical, and research libraries that cooperate to digitize and make accessible the literature of biodiversity held in their collections as a part of a global "biodiversity commons." The blog, which launched in April 2007, includes news and notes about collections, projects, and tools. Materials are in electronic format.
