Administrative Information

Preferred Citation

Smithsonian Institution Archives, Accession 15-214, Smithsonian Institution, Website Records

Descriptive Entry

This accession consists of Instagram accounts maintained by Smithsonian Institution museums, research centers, and programmatic units. Instagram is a program for applying filters to digital photographs and sharing photographs online. Instagram is primarily used as an application for mobile devices, but was recently made available online. Due to technical issues, the crawls of many accounts are incomplete and may not function properly. Materials are in electronic format.
