Table of Contents

Collection Overview ........................................................................................................ 1
Administrative Information .............................................................................................. 1
Descriptive Entry.............................................................................................................. 1
Names and Subjects ....................................................................................................... 1
Container Listing .......................................................................................................... 3
Collection Overview

Repository: Smithsonian Institution Archives, Washington, D.C., osiaref@si.edu
Title: Thomas Wayland Vaughan Papers
Identifier: Accession 16-033
Date: 1902
Extent: 0.25 cu. ft. (1 half document box)
Creator: Vaughan, Thomas Wayland, 1870-1952
Language: Language of Materials: English

Administrative Information

Preferred Citation
Smithsonian Institution Archives, Accession 16-033, Thomas Wayland Vaughan Papers

Descriptive Entry

This accession consists of field notes of Thomas Wayland Vaughan (1870-1952), a geologist and oceanographer with the United States Geological Survey, the United States National Museum, and the Scripps Institution of Oceanography. His research focused on the study of corals and coral reefs, the investigation of larger foraminifer, and oceanography. Materials also include scientific illustrations and maps.

Names and Subject Terms

This collection is indexed in the online catalog of the Smithsonian Institution under the following terms:

Subjects:
Coral reefs and islands
Corals
Foraminifer
Geologists
Geology
Oceanographers
Oceanography
Research
Types of Materials:
Field notes
Maps
Scientific illustrations

Names:
Geological Survey (U.S.)
Scripps Institution of Oceanography
United States National Museum
Vaughan, Thomas Wayland, 1870-1952
Container Listing

Box 1

Box 1 of 1  Texas, Alabama, Georgia, Florida, North Carolina, March-June 1902