Descriptive Entry

This accession consists of the following publications from the National Museum of the American Indian: Kay WalkingStick: An American Artist, edited by Katherine Ash-Milby and David W. Penney; and Looking to the Future: The Life and Legacy of Senator Daniel K. Inouye.

Kay WalkingStick: An American Artist is the exhibition catalog for the exhibition of the same name. The book consist of essays by leading scholars and historians about the life of the Native American artist, Kay WalkingStick.

Looking to the Future: The Life and Legacy of Senator Daniel K. Inouye consists of the proceedings of a symposium held at the National Museum of the American Indian honoring Senator Daniel K. Inouye (1924-2012), one of the greatest advocates for Native people. Senator Inouye was Chairman and Vice Chairman of the U.S. Senate Committee on Indian Affairs, and was one of the visionary founders of the National Museum of the American Indian. The speakers reflected on Senator Inouye's many contributions to the well-being of Native America, and looked to the future to build upon the foundation of the Senator's legacy to carry forward his work for the benefit of future generations of Native people.
