Descriptive Entry

This accession consists of the website of the Encyclopedia of Life (EOL) as it existed on December 7, 2015. EOL is a global partnership between the scientific community and the general public to make freely available to anyone knowledge about all the world's organisms. This website includes information about the partnership, provides resources, and allows for discussion among the EOL community. Due to technical issues with the crawl, some features may not function as expected and content may not be complete. Materials are in electronic format.
