Descriptive Entry

This accession consists of the "Smithsonian's Rock 'n' Roll Website" as it existed on December 14, 2015. The website is a crowdsourcing project intended to collect concert photographs from the public, some of which will be used in a book to be published by Smithsonian Books. The website, which launched on December 1, 2015, includes information about the project, rules for submissions, and featured photographs. This accession does not include every submission available on the live website. Materials are in electronic format.
