Administrative Information

Preferred Citation

Smithsonian Institution Archives, Accession 16-297, National Museum of Natural History.
Department of Invertebrate Zoology, Curatorial Records

---

Descriptive Entry

This accession consists of field notes of Sol Felty Light (1886-1947), a zoologist at the University of California, Berkeley, 1926-1947. These field notes document freshwater copepods collected mostly in the United States, and some notes document specimens collected by others. These materials were maintained by the National Museum of Natural History, Department of Invertebrate Zoology, and possibly relate to collections in the department. Materials also include correspondence and maps.
