Descriptive Entry

This accession consists of the Smithsonian Chamber Music Society website as it existed on April 6, 2016. The Society, a program of the National Museum of American History, brings the museum's musical instrument collection to life through exhibitions, concerts, tours, broadcasts, recordings, and educational programs. The website provides information about the Society and its events, recordings, and educational programs as well as information about the instrument collection. Due to technical issues, some features in this captured website may not function properly. Materials are in electronic format.
