Smithsonian Institution Archives, Accession 18-188, Smithsonian Institution. Archives, Website Records

Descriptive Entry

This accession consists of the Smithsonian Institution Archives website as it existed on November 21, 2016, and again on December 12, 2016. The website includes information for researchers, staff, and the general public regarding reference, records management, and preservation. It also includes publications, resources for teachers, online exhibitions, historical images, and narrative histories of the Smithsonian Institution and its museums, research centers, activities, and staff as well as the blog, "The Bigger Picture: Exploring Archives and Smithsonian History," with posts dating from January 2009. In addition, a new online exhibition "African American Contributions to the Smithsonian: Challenges and Achievements" was crawled on January 11, 2017, and an older online exhibition "Spencer F. Baird's Vision for a National Museum" was crawled on May 11, 2017. This accession does not include detailed collections information and some videos are missing. Materials are in electronic format.
