Administrative Information

Preferred Citation

Smithsonian Institution Archives, Accession 18-203, National Museum of American History.
Division of Medicine and Science, Curatorial Records

Descriptive Entry

This accession consists of the records of Jeffrey K. Stine, Curator of technology and environmental history, documenting his curatorial and professional activities in the Division of Medicine and Science, and during the years he was in the Division of the History of Technology and the Division of Engineering and Industry, respectively. Also includes some earlier records that date prior to Stine's tenure at the Smithsonian Institution. The records primarily document Stine's participation in forums, committees, conferences, and public programs; as well as matters in regard to research, collections management, and special events at the National Museum of American History. Materials include correspondence, memoranda, and notes; proposals; reports; meeting agendas and minutes; lecture papers; awards; newspaper clippings; pamphlets; and brochures. Some materials are in electronic format.
