Descriptive Entry

This accession consists of 18 Facebook accounts maintained by individual units throughout the Smithsonian Institution. Facebook is a third-party social networking site used for interaction with the general public. The accounts were captured between November 29, 2016, and March 12, 2018. A few accounts were downloaded using Facebook's "archive" feature. Due to technical issues, the captures of many accounts are incomplete and may not function properly. Materials are in electronic format.
