Administrative Information

Preferred Citation

Smithsonian Institution Archives, Accession 20-106, National Postal Museum, Website Records

---

Descriptive Entry

This accession consists of the "People and the Post: A Digital Memory Book" website as it existed on December 6, 2018, shortly before it was taken offline. The website, maintained by the National Postal Museum, invited current and retired postal employees to share work-related stories with the general public to showcase the depth and breadth of the history of the postal system and its contributions to American history. This accession also includes the server files for the website. Materials are in electronic format.
