Descriptive Entry

This accession consists of the History Film Forum website as it existed on March 17, 2020. The History Film Forum, presented by the Smithsonian Institution and the National Endowment for the Humanities, explores history on the screen and the state of film as public history through analysis of narrative film, documentaries, television shows, and internet videos. The website, hosted by the Smithsonian Institution, provides information about the Forum and associated events. At the time of capture, the website did not appear to have been updated since late 2017 or early 2018. Materials are in electronic format.
