Descriptive Entry

These records consist of an annual report and program reports concerning the Resident Associates Program; brochures, pamphlets, and announcements of SI Resident Associates activities; and blank membership cards. Also included are Susan Hamilton's personal files.

There are extensive materials documenting the City Building Education Program, a city planning workshop for children headed by architect, Frank Gehry. The records of the program include correspondence with teachers and participants, progress reports, budget and expense reports, and photographs.

Susan Hamilton continued her involvement with the City Building Education Program as Advisory Consultant after her transfer from the Resident Associates to Bicentennial Coordinator, Office of the Assistant Secretary for History and Art in 1972.
