Administrative Information

Preferred Citation

Smithsonian Institution Archives, Accession 95-071, Smithsonian Institution. Directorate of International Activities. Office of Service and Protocol, Summary Report Records

---

Descriptive Entry

This accession consists of records that document the development and publication of "A Summary Report: Profile of the Smithsonian Institution's International Activities and Foreign Interests," published by the Office of Service and Protocol of the Directorate of International Activities. The purpose of the report was to assemble and summarize information about the scholarly activities and interests of the Smithsonian Institution which involved foreign areas or foreign specialists.

The records contain completed and returned copies of the "International Profile Questionnaire" that were sent to SI staff to survey international activity; memoranda and reports from Smithsonian bureaus describing international activity; mailing lists of report recipients; memoranda and notes regarding the assembly of the information; draft copies of the report; and master copies of the report.
